ORDER

WHEREAS, District of Delaware Local Rule 5.3 - Originals and Copies of Filed

Documents, directs:

When a party electronically files a document, the electronically filed copy is deemed the original. One paper copy of the following papers shall be furnished to the Clerk, unless otherwise ordered by the Court: pleadings, stipulations, motions, responses to motions, briefs, memoranda of points and authorities, appendices, and proposed pretrial orders in conformance with D. Del. LR 16.3(c).

WHEREAS, the Judges of this Court have determined that courtesy copies are no longer required of initial pleadings (i.e. Complaints, Notices of Removal, Petitions to Enforce, etc.,) filed in the Court's designated holding case, 99-mc-9999;

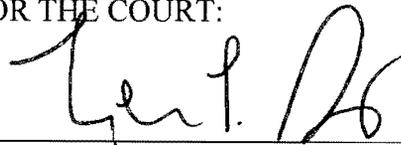

NOW THEREFORE, at Wilmington, this ^{9th} day of September, 2014,

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

Courtesy copies of the aforementioned initial pleadings, filed in the Court's designated holding case 99-mc-9999, are no longer required to be furnished to the Clerk's Office when the original pleading is electronically filed with the Court;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT the remaining provisions of D. Del. LR 5.3 remain in FULL FORCE AND EFFECT.

FOR THE COURT:

CHIEF, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
