

William A. Mendenhall

DIED

In Wilmington, on Monday, at 4 o'clock, P.M. after a short and violent illness, WILLIAM A. MENDENHALL, Esq., in the 41st year of his age. In him society has lost one of its most valuable members; the church one of its most active and consistent professors; the Temperance cause a bold and ardent advocate; and the Sabbath School an efficient and devoted laborer. It is hoped a more extended notice will be given of this interesting man.

His funeral will leave his late residence, No. 25 Market Street, at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning. His friends and the public generally are invited to attend without further notice.

Delaware State Journal, August 6, 1839