

Cell phones, other PDA devices, and laptop computers are allowed in the courthouse

Use of a Device while in the courtroom in any way that detracts, or could be construed as detracting, from the integrity of a proceeding may, at the discretion of the presiding judge, result in confiscation of the Device, as well as other appropriate action.