Also, had a pleasant dinner with Sean. I feel a bit like I'm being courted. 😊

He took our message fine indicated that "your owners and Board will do what is best for them at the time that is best for them". He gets that.

We spent most of the time talking about the industry, retail opportunity, airlines reaction with a FArelogix SABRE deal, general stuff about our innovation capabilities and how important it is to Sabre to keep that with an acquisition, etc.

Regards. Jim
