Jeff,

Thinking out loud and quickly here - I've drafted a blurb below. Could you please advise if you have any edits/additions to make it better?

"Sabre has been very vocal in their support of NDC and this Farelogix transaction is a clear sign that they are serious about their commitment to industry modernization. We welcome this investment and look forward to seeing Farelogix use this as an opportunity to provide us with even better service."

Jonathan and I are putting our heads together. We have an inquiry from travel weekly already. Thanks for the flag! I'll send some language through in a little.
