

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

STANDING ORDER REGARDING
CASES IN THE U.S. DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the following requirements shall apply in all cases in which I sit by designation in the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware:

Adoption of Local Standing Orders and Rules: Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, I adopt the Local Rules of Civil Practice and Procedure of the United States District Court for the District of Delaware and the Standing Order Regarding Briefing in all Cases. I also adopt Chief Judge Connolly's standing orders and forms.

Physical Copies of Filings: Parties shall file documents electronically through the Court's CM/ECF system. Electronically filed copies are deemed the original. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, Parties shall furnish one paper copy of pleadings, briefs, responses, and replies. Parties shall also provide two physical copies of documents filed in support of pleadings and briefs—appendices, exhibits, declarations, and affidavits. Parties are not required to file paper copies of motions, memoranda of points and authorities, letters, stipulations, status reports, and similar shorter filings. Paper copies shall be furnished to the Clerk of Court at United States Court of International Trade, One Federal Plaza, New York, New York 10278-0001. Parties need not file copies with the Clerk of Court for the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware. Parties are not required to physically deliver original and paper copies of sealed filings to the Court.

Opportunities for Junior Lawyers: The Court encourages the parties to create opportunities for junior lawyers to take a more active role in oral arguments, particularly those junior lawyers who are familiar with the issues and the record, but who are not as experienced in arguing before a court. Parties are permitted to structure and divide presentations during oral proceedings to allow junior attorneys an opportunity to present arguments and respond to questioning by the Judge.
