Announcing Video Contest

The Courts, Community, and Rule of Law Committee of the Judicial Council of the Third Circuit announced today that it is hosting an Annual Third Circuit American Democracy Video Contest for high school students in grades nine through twelve on the Importance of American Democracy.

Brought to you by the Third Circuit Courts, Community, and Rule of Law Committee

High school students will submit original-content videos depicting why our democratic institutions and the fundamental rights and principles associated with them are critical to the future of the country. Videos are to be 5-7 minutes in length, and a rotating subcommittee of our circuit-wide committee will judge the videos and select one winner. The winner will be celebrated at the federal courthouse in the winner's home district (or division) during a naturalization ceremony. The winning video will be played during all districts' naturalization ceremonies until the next winner is selected. The winning video also will appear on the Third Circuit's website, district websites, and other related social media platforms. Video Contest submissions are due on Monday, November 3, 2025, and the award will be presented in early to mid-December, in celebration of Bill of Rights Day. The videos will be evaluated based on creativity, adherence to the theme, and content.
