- Drafts legal memoranda, opinions and orders
- Reviews all complaints, petitions, motions, and pleadings that have been filed to determine issues involved and basis for relief
- Performs research as required
- Reviews docket of pending litigation to assure proper progress. Keeps Judge advised of those cases where action is appropriate

Qualifications

To qualify for the position of law clerk on the personal staff of a United States Magistrate Judge, a person must be a law school graduate (or be certified as having completed all law school studies and requirements and merely awaiting conferment of degree) from a law school of recognized standing, and have demonstrated one or more of the following accomplishments or proficiencies:

- a) Standing within the upper third of the law school class from a law school on the approved list of either the American Bar Association or the Association of American Law Schools;
- b) Experience on the editorial board of a law review of such a school;
- c) Graduation from such a school with an LLM degree; or
- d) Proficiency in legal studies that, in the opinion of the judge, is the equivalent of one of the above. Some examples of criteria that are considered to be acceptable as equivalent include:
 - 1) Publication of a noteworthy article in a law school student publication or other scholarly publication;
 - 2) Special high-level honors for academic excellence in law school, such as election to the Order of the Coif;
 - 3) Winning of a moot court competition or membership on a moot court team that represents the law school in competition with other law schools;
 - 4) Participation in the legal aid or other law school clinical program sanctioned by the law school;* or
 - 5) Summer experience as a law clerk to a state or local judge or law clerk experience on a continuing basis in a private firm while attending school, i.e., working one's way through college.*

(*To receive credit, participation and experience could not have been for academic credit.)
