

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

NOTICE REGARDING SUBMISSION OF DOCUMENTS TO THE COURT

Pursuant to the District of Delaware's Administrative Procedures Governing Filing and Service by Electronic Means, Revised May, 2019, Section (L):

Facsimile and Electronic Mail Transmissions

No pleadings or other documents shall be submitted to the Court for filing by facsimile or electronic mail transmission without prior leave of Court.

In addition, sealed criminal documents must be delivered to the Clerk's Office in sealed envelopes with no electronic entry on the docket sheet, pursuant to Section G(2). Sealed civil documents must be filed electronically of record in CM/ECF, pursuant to Section G(1).

Additional information on all filing procedures, including detailed instructions for the filing of sealed criminal and civil documents, is contained in the Administrative Procedures Governing Filing and Service by Electronic Means, located on the Court's website, www.ded.uscourts.gov, under CM/ECF Information, Manuals and Procedures.
