

POWER Act Live Webinar - October 9, 2020

The POWER Act, passed by Congress in 2019, requires the Chief Judge in each federal judicial district to conduct public events to promote pro bono legal services for survivors of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. In connection with the Act, the Delaware Chapter of the Federal Bar Association, in conjunction with the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware and the Family Court of the State of Delaware are pleased to present:

The POWER Act: Pro Bono Representation for Survivors of Domestic Violence. This program will bring awareness to domestic violence situations in the community and discuss opportunities for members of the bar to offer pro bono legal services to survivors.

Event: POWER Act Live Webinar

Date: Friday, October 9, 2020

Time: 11 am – 12 pm

Location: Zoom videoconference (details provided after registration)

CLE: The Delaware Chapter of the Federal Bar Association will be applying for 1 hour of Ethics credit for attendees

To register, please email Andrew Mayo at AMayo@ashbygeddes.com by Wednesday, October 7, 2020.

Panelists:

The Honorable Jennifer B. Ranji
Judge, Family Court of the State of Delaware

The Honorable Theresa A. Sedivec
Commissioner, Family Court of the State of Delaware

Janine Howard-O'Rangers, Esq.
Delaware Volunteer Legal Services, Inc.

Leslie Spoltore, Esq.
Obermayer Rebmann Maxwell & Hippel LLP

Achille C. Scache, Esq.
Giordano, DelCollo, Werb & Gagne, LLC

Moderator: The Honorable Jennifer L. Hall, Magistrate Judge, United States District Court for the District of Delaware

Opening Comments from The Honorable Leonard P. Stark, Chief Judge, United States District Court for the District of Delaware